FLRA ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN THE DENVER REGIONAL OFFICE

Julia Akins Clark, General Counsel of the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA), today announced the appointment of Paige Swenson as the Regional Attorney of the Denver Regional Office. In her new position, Ms. Swenson will assist Denver Regional Director Timothy Sullivan in the management of personnel and operations relating to the investigation and resolution of unfair labor practice and representation cases in the Denver Region, which covers Arizona, Colorado, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, South Dakota, Utah, and Wyoming.

Ms. Swenson began her career with the FLRA in the Atlanta Regional Office in 1997 and has served as a Senior Attorney since 2002. Ms. Swenson transferred to the Denver Regional Office in July 2010. She served as the Acting Regional Attorney in Denver on two earlier occasions. Ms. Swenson received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and History from Emory University, and a Juris Doctor degree from the Mercer University Walter F. George School of Law.

The FLRA's Office of the General Counsel (OGC) is the independent investigative and prosecutorial component of the FLRA. Through its seven regional offices, the OGC investigates, settles, and prosecutes unfair labor practice charges, resolves representation disputes, including the conduct of secret ballot elections, and provides training to union and management representatives. The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute.
